

application guidelines

tinygrants

An experiment in microfunding for the arts, tinygrants facilitates short term, creative interventions through the distribution of small grants to artists at any stage in their career. tinygrants promotes collaboration, participation, curiosity and awareness amongst a broad range of artists and audiences.

the basics

All fields are required.

You can submit as many applications as you like, however, only one project per person is eligible for funding.

Applications can be submitted by individual artists or collectives.

Applications are due no later than 11:59 PM on Sunday, November 22, 2009. Late applications will not be accepted.

Projects will be selected based on the following criteria:

- 1) accordance with tinygrants mission statement
- 2) creativity and ingenuity
- 3) plausibility

You must submit a CV and digital images of your previous work (.jpg, maximum five images).

Submit applications by email to hello@tinygrants.ca.

project stuff

Please provide a tentative title for your project. This can be changed upon selection.

Describe your relational project in 1000 characters or less. Include a possible venue or venue type.

Events must occur in the Toronto area and take place prior to Monday, February 22, 2010.

Events must not exceed eight hours.

money stuff

The maximum grant amount is $300.

tinygrants will work collaboratively with selected artists to maximize use of funds.

Funds are distributed as “artist fees” that can be used by the artist as necessary in order to realize his or her project.

As this is an experiment in microfunding for the arts, tinygrants funding must be the primary source of project funding. Supplemental funding (including other grants, sponsorships or personal contributions) must not exceed 25% of the tinygrants amount received.

reporting stuff

All applicants are asked to participate in a brief survey regarding the tinygrants application process.

All grant recipients are required to complete a project assessment survey as well as a brief reporting form that outlines the budget for and attendance of your event.

grant stuff

You will be notified of grant results by email.

Funds will be distributed upon receipt of signed agreement.
